A Systematic Review on Emergence of Digital Marketing in the ASEAN Region

This study reviews research on Digital Marketing in ASEAN nations over recent years. The challenge to ASEAN is to ensure that development gap is well addressed. The study describes a strong need for ASEAN countries to share knowledge and capacity building programs. This would help deeper understanding about digital economy, and the potential that digital economy has in the region. This will help formulate strategic action plans.